

what's on in the UAE

Abu Dhabi

Early Bird F1 Berthing Offer

Yas Marina has opened bookings for the 2013 Formula 1 season. Abu Dhabi Grand Prix race owners can avail up to 10 per cent discount on berthing packages when bookings and payments are made by August 31. The F1 race returns to Yas Marina Circuit from 26th November 26 until December 1.

• www.f1.ae
 raceweek

Abu Dhabi

Community Fitness

Ramadan community health and fitness line-up, including a new DuRAS duathlon, plus events for participants of all ages and abilities. In addition to the StarVUS (Sundays), TriAMUS (Tuesdays) and GoVUS (Wednesdays) events that will continue to operate throughout Ramadan, a new challenge have been introduced. On May 28 – as part of the Zayed Sports Tournament 2013 – DuRAS is hosting a duathlon open to individual men and women or two-person teams, testing participants over three elements: a 5k run, followed by a 20k bike ride, finishing off with a 2.5k run. Registration is Dh600 per entry.

• www.rasracing.com

me performances hosted by Mark Spica. The show will be followed by films, screening at 1pm and 8pm screenings as well as gala screenings at 1pm screenings. Today's schedule includes two film and official admission for the Oscars. The journey to technical award of Best Actor and Best Actress by the Academy will meet-up group, who have set out to bring together people from all backgrounds often to come together to learn and experience the excitement with online to meet all the Confirmed Awards show its insight on the digital and creative platforms initiative which he set up to

Ramadan at Cinema A&B
 Cinema A&B and Project Cinema have transformed the cinema into a dining hall, serving theatrical dinner comfort food for the whole show featuring games, balls and open

Dubai

Free Iftar For Kids

Sumo Sushi & Bento restaurants across the UAE are offering a free Iftar meal for children aged 12 years and under, every Sunday. On every Iftar meal or an entree, the child gets a free meal, offer can be clubbed with the set Iftar menu that serves two adults in a family.

• sumosushibento.com

Dubai

Arabic Light Calligraphy workshop

Award-winning artist Faiza Sultan is promoting the art of Arabic calligraphy and spread its use among the community. During the workshop, the artist will create customised Arabic calligraphy light pens for the participant, from open to learn, at the Dubai Mall, opposite Dubai Ice Rink, last day. Free to attend.

Call: +971-4-3617300

Discover Legoland

Mark Ramadan at Legoland Dubai, part of Dubai Parks and Resorts, this May, with a series of special offers taking place at the park, visit Legoland Dubai or Legoland Water Park for Dh90 per ticket, with 10 per cent of all ticket sales going towards the 'Marina Road' initiative, a charitable initiative aiming to create smart, friendly and healthy environments through reading resources for children in the park. The big theatrical show within the park will also run a 'Buy-one-get-one' offer on all books, ensuring when one book is purchased, visitors will be given another to donate.

• legoland.ae

Colours of Dubai

An exhibition by Sarah Jackson, a teacher at Gemis Education and also a contemporary artist specialising in graphic-based collaborations, on display in the lobby of the Media One Hotel, Dubai Media City, until May 31.

• mediaonehotel.com

—Compiled by www.pulse.ae
 —Compiled by www.pulse.ae

Dubai

Free Iftar For Kids

Sumo Sushi & Bento restaurants across the UAE are offering a free Iftar meal for children aged 12 years and under, every Sunday. On every Iftar meal or an entree, the child gets a free meal, offer can be clubbed with the set Iftar menu that serves two adults in a family.

• sumosushibento.com